

THE SAVICS

Neša and Goca Savic serve the Lord with their children in Belgrade, Serbia. They were born and raised in south Belgrade, an area of 250,000 people where there is no evangelical church. In 2009 they started the first evangelical church in this unreached area and in 2013 they planted a second church. Nesa wants to see more churches planted in south Belgrade. Their vision is a “new church to new people”. Nesa is committed to these churches being filled with brand new believers.

In 2006, they founded the first Christian counseling center in Serbia, “Marriage and Family”. Their vision is to help people build a happy marriage and healthy family relations based on the truth of Scripture. They hold lectures, seminars, and conferences on marriage and family in Serbia and surrounding countries. They often have the opportunity to speak on television about marriage and family. Neša and Goca are recognized as national leaders and are involved in many activities in Serbia and in neighboring countries. They have been married for 25 years and have three children: Nikola, Jovana, and Vojin.
